FRIEND SUNDAY

Sunday, March 30

Everyone invite and have a friend attend worship with you that morning!

From Bro. Mark

Dear Church Family,

Due to our network issues at the church, this email serves as the March newsletter. I cannot include everything that is going on, but I can give you the main emphasis. For student ministries, be aware that spring break in GCCISD and in BHISD is March 10-14.

Joy Fellowship (age 50+) meets on Thursday, March 6, at 10:30 a.m. A lunch of ham, baked beans, potato salad, and dessert is served at 11:30 a.m.

Spend this month cultivating friendships. Go out and meet a neighbor. Do something for them. Bring them something homemade. Or maybe you already know a friend, co-worker, classmate, or neighbor who does not attend church regularly anywhere. Invite that person to be your guest for worship on Friend Day, March 30. Maybe you could invite a family member. Invite them to Bible study on Sunday morning. Bring them in early before worship to one of the new coffee bars. They even had hot chocolate available the first Sunday! You never know what God will do on that day when we gather with all our friends in one house of worship to praise the Lord and share the good news! Not only pray for your friend, but pray that God's Spirit would move and call people to salvation. This could be the day that your friend will remember for eternity!

A friend has been described as somebody who knows all about you and loves you anyway. A friend steps in when the whole world steps out. So, a friend knows you. A friend is someone who loves you. A friend has things in common with you. A friend protects you and makes you happy. A friend helps you when you are in trouble and is loyal to you. A friend brings out the best in you and is interested in your well-being.

Not many people come to salvation unless in connection with someone's prayers. God may be looking your way right now for one who will pray through to the salvation of a friend (Ezekiel 22:30). Do you have someone in mind? Stand before God in prayer for the salvation of your unsaved friend.

We have a need for more Sunday school teachers in the children's department. See Susan McGee if you are willing to make that investment in the lives of little ones and to help us fulfill the vision of 225 in 2025. Gary and Rachel Dixon are conducting children's church at least twice a month. We need volunteers to cover the other two Sundays. We provide you with material.

God bless you,
Bro. Mark

52 Week Bible Reading Plans for 2025 are available at the greeters' booth in the worship center lobby.

Remember to complete a Facilities Request Form (Green Sheet) for every church-related meeting, social event and off-campus events. Forms are available in the church office or on our website under the Resources tab.

Join us each Wednesday night for Bible studies for all ages.

Bro. Mark's Prayer and Bible Study Class, Youth, Missions, GA's and RA's meet at 6 p.m. Nursery is available.
